

Please allow public debate on this critical issue! The notion of even fewer channels owning too great a percentage of American broadcast space fills me with horror. The loss of so much local air broadcast is already a disaster; please don't allow it to become worse.